Cancelations and Refunds

Performances

Cancelations made within two weeks of the event will incur the loss of the deposit. This is due to insufficient time to book another performance.

10-Week Courses

Term fees are designed to motivate and inspire students with their learning. The 10-week course will have times of both enthusiasm and possible frustration. The help of other class members going through the same process and completing a complete course will give a real sense of achievement. There are no refunds for classes missed, however we will endeavour to make sure you don't drop behind if you do need to be absent from a class.

Private Lessons

Payments are still due if less than 24 hours' notice of cancelation is given.
